FAMILY SUPPORT PROGRAM

Families play a supportive role that is crucial to a service member's success. The sacrifices military families make are key to helping the Navy reach its readiness, retention and recruitment goals. From a letter to all Navy families, Master Chief Petty Officer of the Navy, Terry D. Scott states, "I am sure I speak for all Sailors when I say thank you. Thank you for supporting us when times get tough. But most of all thank you for your love and support that gives us the strength to serve."

Your Fleet and Family Support Center is committed to assisting the military family. Such programs as Deployment, Information/Referral, Life Skills Education, Transition Assistance, Personal Financial Management, Sexual Assault/Victim Intervention, Relocation Assistance, Exceptional Family Member, Spouse Employment Assistance and Counseling are available for active duty and family members.

The staff at your Fleet and Family Support Center keeps its mission at the forefront at all times. "To support the Commands Mission by providing assistance to Service Members and their families."

During this month focusing on Family Support Programs, we trust you will find time to stop by your local Fleet and Family Support Center. We are there for YOU!
